Odyssey n., any long series of wanderings

Each and every experience we have, no matter how isolated or seemingly insignificant adds another piece to the puzzle of what we are, who we are and why we are . . .

. . . Every day we learn something more about ourselves. Life is, in essence, learning, think of all that lies ahead of you and you'll realize that . . .

. . . we've only just begun.

Dedication to Miss Mary Nordberg

It takes a great deal of patience and courage to put up with a rambunctious class for four long years. Dedication of ODYSSEY is small compensation for the many hours you have contributed as advisor of the Class of 1971. We hope this yearbook will stand as a lasting tribute to YOUR dedication.

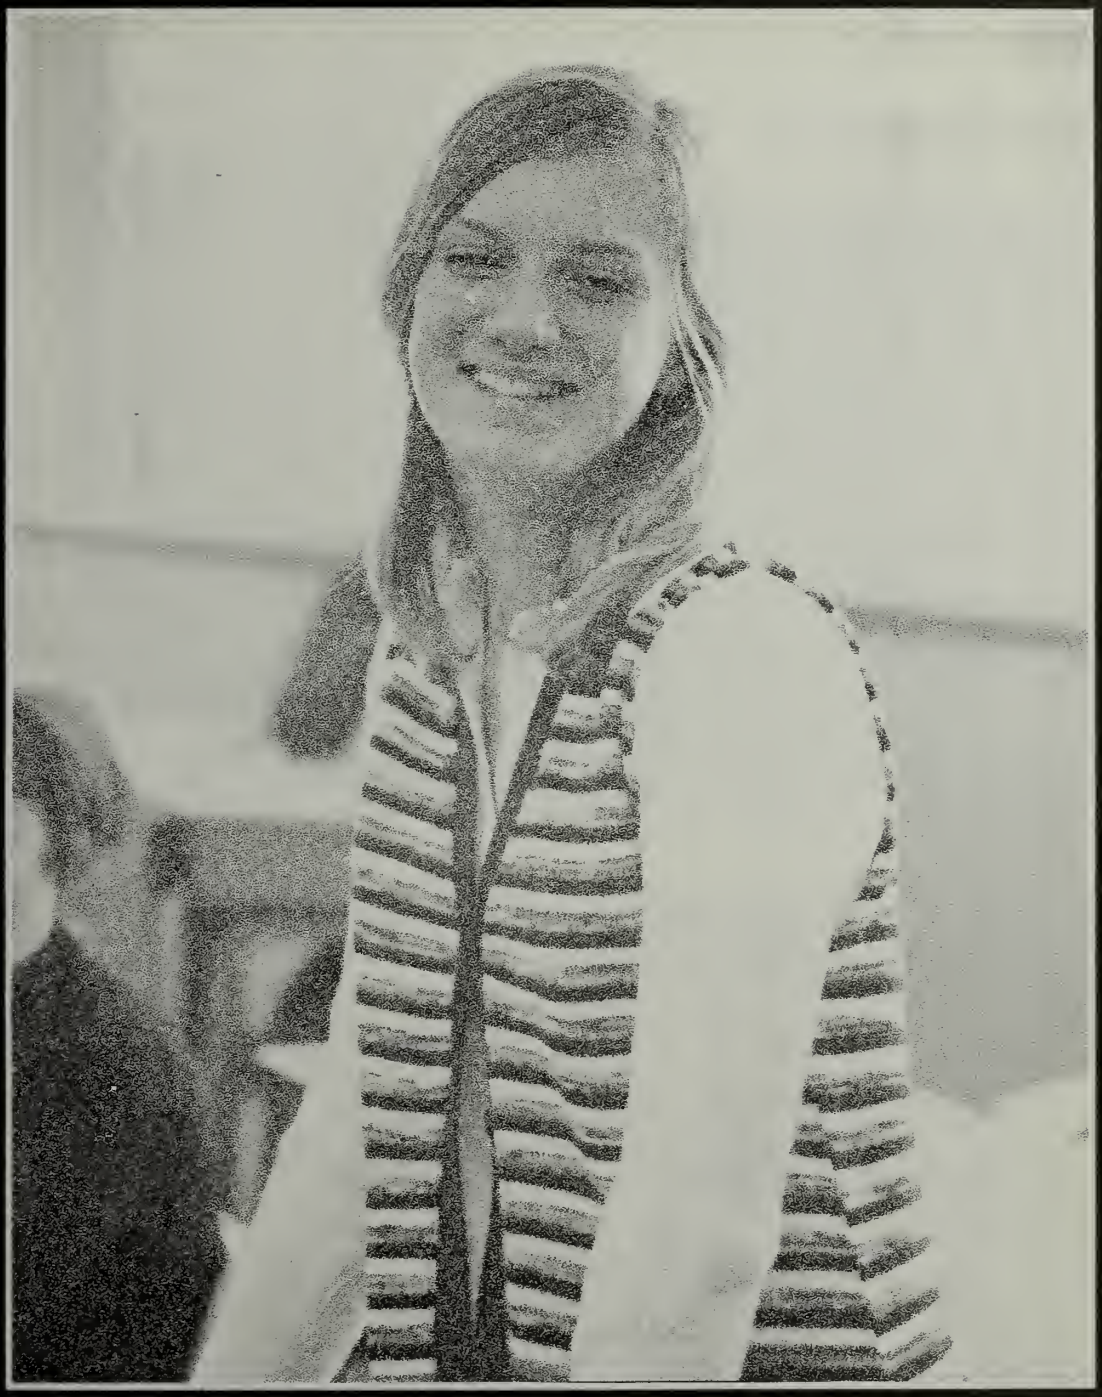
Underclass



. . . the girls have to take showers in gym . . . well, I'm not going to change in front of everyone . . . my brother had to run 25 times around the fence . . . do you think we will be able to find our classes . . . just as long as I find the cafeteria . . . the Freshmen don't get dessert . . . the bathrooms are on each end of the hall . . . upper-classmen always send the Freshmen to the boiler room when they ask for directions . . . I hope that I can find the right bus home . . . they lock you inside the building if you aren't out by 5:11 . . .

. . . don't the Freshmen look tiny this year . . . we couldn't have been that small . . . it certainly is nice to get more respect . . . I never noticed how cute the boys were in our class . . . well, two more years to go . . . I hate to get up in the morning for the 7 o'clock bus . . . it was a lot easier last year . . .

School Menu

Each meal comes with a bottle of prune juice. Teachers, for 5c extra, may have wine.

Monday—fried cabbage with cinnamon, chopped liver and jelly sandwich, grape salad and a snickerdoodle

Tuesday—Italian chop suey with nifty noodles, chestnuts grown on the banks of the Nile, wampum bread and banana bunyan

Wednesday—bread sandwiches, creamy cheese soup, olive and strawberry parfait

Thursday—rooster pie with pimentos, flower salad, Rice-a-Roni, green beans a la Hingham and crispy crumbles

Friday—fish chowder, fishcakes, fish potatoes, and fishy-wishy jello

. . . what do you plan on wearing next year when we have our Senior pictures taken . . . we get to use real oil paint . . . and the shop rations aren't so strict . . . hadn't we better start organizing the prom committee? It's already the third week of September . . . I've waited three years for this license . . . the man at the registry said that the third time never fails . . .
